Hey Ho, to the beach festival we go!

The ever-popular Cornwall beach town festival is back this year for it's sixteenth time and it's bigger than ever! After the cancellation of last year due to dangerous weather, the festival is ramping up every single element to make up for it!

5 days of amazing headliners, music, surf & sun await you in Newquay in August. The line-up alone speaks for itself and there's still many more names to be announced over the coming months. As well as music, the annual Surf, Skating and BMX competitions will happen throughout the day which you can watch and get involved in. The festival's long weekend will see over 60,000 people moving to the seaside town and getting wrapped up in everything that Boardmasters has to offer!

Do you really want to miss out on all this incredible festival fun? Get in touch with Freshly Squeezed Events today and get yourself booked onto Boardies now!
