The Event

Roll-up your sleeves and get into the kitchen with a pro.

Starter: Everyone will be sent a list of ingredients & utensils needed for the class dish in advance – along with alternatives for any dietary requirements.

Main Course: Your private, Michelin Star Chef will be ready & waiting on your virtual video call, so aprons and hats on & you're off! Your Chef will talk you through the dish to start and will then accompany everyone through every element & stage to complete the dish. The Chef will also be answering any questions you have throughout the session.

Dessert: Show off those amazing Chef skills & enjoy your creation. The session can be recorded so that you can save and share this memory.
